

Ensign, Mrs. Robert McIver Are on Yosemite Honeymoon

Honeymooning this week at Yosemite, before leaving for Pensacola, Fla., to make their home are Ens. and Mrs. Robert McIver who were married at an 11 o'clock nuptial mass on Saturday morning, June 22 at the St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church. Mrs. McIver is the former Ann "Tippy" Britton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Britton, 303 Via Pasqual, Hollywood Riviera.

The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta detailed with a pleated nylon tulle skirt. Her fingertip veil was secured by a crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of Amazon lilies and stephanotis centered by a white orchid. Mr. Britton walked to the altar with his daughter.

Miss Sheryl Mummert of Inglewood was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Christine Dosler of Pasadena, and Miss Marian Sue Maricle of Hermosa Beach. Patricia Clare Britton served as sister's flower girl. Yellow and blue were carried out in the bridal attendants' gowns and they carried harmonizing bouquets.

Henry McIver stood as best man and ushers were Gerald Penner and Gerald Burton.

La Venta Inn was the setting for the wedding reception at which Regina McIver registered the guests.

Both the bride and her husband are graduates of UCLA.

AT CLEAR LAKE

Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Fossum are vacationing at Clear Lake. Dr. Fossum recently underwent emergency surgery while on the trip and a letter this week said that he was recuperating nicely and was back at his trailer.

Powell-Turner Names Are Linked in Marriage June 23

On Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. June 23, 250 wedding guests assembled in the First Baptist Church of Torrance to witness the double ring marriage ceremony in which Miss Marilyn Faye Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Powell, 2091 W. 166th St., exchanged her vows with Ronald George Turner, son of Mrs. Valerie Turner, 1820 Arlington Ave.

Candles were lighted by Miss Ann Sackman and Miss Bonnie Fletcher wearing princess gowns of soft pink crystalline and wrist corsages of pink carnations. Mrs. Pat Ouwendyk at the organ played the wedding marches and accompanied Fred Lincoln, Jr., who sang "The Lord's Prayer" "Because" and "I Love You Truly".

Entering the church first were the bridesmaids, Misses Christine Roberts, Lorraine Carr and Betty Powell. They wore pale blue crystalline gowns and carried cascades of pale blue carnations.

Next in line, was the matron of honor, Mrs. Carolyn Schuch.

OFF TO EUROPE

Miss Mary Sippel, Torrance High School student and Miss Marjorie Towle, North High student, who will spend the summer in Europe under the American Field Service plan, left by plane Thursday for Montreal where they boarded a ship for the continent.

FAMILY TRIPS

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jackson and Jo Beth attended the graduation of Miss Mary Ellen House in Oxnard last week. Saturday the Jackson family attended the wedding of Bob Scranton at the Atwater Baptist Church in Los Angeles.

whose gown was of medium blue crystalline with which she wore a large blue picture hat and carried a shower of two shades of blue carnations.

Little Kathy Pettit was the flower girl wearing a floor length blue crystalline frock and carrying a parasol basket filled with rose petals. The rings were carried by Rickey Winland.

Then came the bride on the arm of her father. Her gown was floor length with Alencon lace detail. It had the mandarin ruffled neckline, a classic tiered back and the long fitted sleeves. A crown of seed pearls secured her veil and she carried white orchids encircled by stephanotis.

The bridegroom had asked Howard Brady to serve as best man and ushers were Monte Backstrom, Bob Whitcomb, Ronald Johnson and Jim Schiebler.

The Rev. Nathan Bond, church pastor, officiated at the marriage and a reception followed in the church.

The newlyweds are now on a week's honeymoon before leaving for El Paso, Texas, to make their home.

The bride, a Torrance High school graduate of 1955, was a member of this June's graduating class at El Camino college.

Mr. Turner was also graduated from the local high school and is now in the United States Air Force stationed in El Paso.

Mr., Mrs. Alwyn G. Roberts On Honeymoon; Wed Sunday

Miss Sally Jean Walsh was lovely in her wedding gown of white lace over tulle last Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. when she walked down the aisle of the First Methodist Church on the arm of her father, Dr. J. S. Walsh to plight her marriage promises with Alwyn G. Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Roberts, 1225 Hickory Ave.

The wedding gown was fashioned with a bateau neckline, pointed wrist length sleeves and a bouffant waltz length skirt. She wore a short illusion veil and carried stephanotis centered by a white orchid.

Miss Carolyn Davis of Douglas, Ariz., wearing a yellow dotted swiss dress and carrying a Colonial bouquet of mixed flowers, was the honor attendant.

The rainbow colors were used in the dotted swiss gowns of the bridal attendants. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Julie Gattian in blue, Mrs. Bill Sikes in pink, and Miss Kay Roberts, candlelighter, wore orchid dotted swiss. Their bouquets were also the mixed flowers.

Gerald Roberts stood as best man and ushers were James Gattian and Bill Sikes.

Harold Holmes sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. T. White at the organ.

The Rev. John Taylor, pastor, conducted the marriage ceremony. A reception followed at the church.

The couple are spending a honeymoon at June Lake and upon their return will be at home at 329 Palos Verdes Blvd.

Mrs. Roberts, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Walsh of Douglas, Ariz., is a teacher in the Torrance schools. She is a graduate of the Arizona State College at Flagstaff.

Her husband is a Torrance High and El Camino college graduate. He served two years with the United States Navy.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were the parents of the bride, Dr. and Mrs. James Walsh, Miss Carolyn Davis and Mrs. Cloa Houle, grandmother, from Douglas, Ariz.; Mrs. John Thompson, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Varella, San Luis, Sonora, Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Forsyth, Forest Grove, Oregon; and Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Roberts, Mankato, Minn.

On Saturday evening, Dr. and Mrs. Walsh entertained the bridal party at a dinner at the Plush Horse.

Sunday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Roberts entertained the out-of-town guests and bridal party at a brunch at their home, 1225 Hickory Ave.

Historic San Gabriel Mission was the setting for the 9 o'clock nuptial mass on Saturday, June 22, when Miss Lupe Hernandez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Hernandez, 2213 250th St., Lomita, became the bride of James Cuellar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cuellar of San Gabriel.

Heading the bridal entourage were the bridesmaids, Misses Louise Muro, Stella Garcia and Bobbie Ortez. They wore bouffant gowns of pink net and tulle and carried pink carnations.

The honor attendants were Miss Patricia Bates and Mrs. Ortie Rodriguez. Miss Bates was in a pink gown and carried pink carnations and Mrs. Rodriguez was in aqua.

Then came the bride on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace and net. The lace bodice had a standup collar and long sleeves. The full tulle skirt was ornamented with lace inserts. A lace cap of seed pearls held the bridal veil and she carried a bouquet of orchids, stephanotis and a white prayerbook.

Charles Rodriguez was best man and ushers were Joe Hernandez and Ray Dias.

The Rev. Cuellar officiated as the church organist played "Panis Angelicus", "Ave Maria" and "On This Day".

After a San Francisco honeymoon, the couple will be at home in San Gabriel.

The bride is a Narbonne High graduate. Her husband has a degree in music from UCLA and is now majoring in electrical engineering at Pasadena City College.

Judith Patterson Is Now Mrs. William Szieff Jr.

White bows on the pews and a white runner down the center aisle marked the bridal path to the sanctuary of the Lomita First Baptist Church decorated with white stock, gladioli and candles last Saturday evening at 8 for the wedding of Miss Judith Patterson and William Szieff, Jr.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Patterson, 1941 253rd St., Lomita, and Mr. William Szieff, Sr., of Alliance, Ohio.

At the first strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Martha Fluke, the 250 guests stood to await the bride. Mr. Patterson walked with his daughter to the altar. Her gown was of nylon net with lace inserts. The neckline was ornamented with seed, pearls and sequins. A sequin crown held the fingertip bridal veil.

Atop her small white Bible, the bride carried a white orchid and stephanotis.

Miss Shirley Endo was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Jean Kellman and Roxanne Biggs. Their identical gowns were salmon pink and they carried white baskets filled with white daisies and blue bachelor buttons.

Best man was Paul De Lange and ushers were Bob Such and Nicky Nichols. Lee Hughes sang "Through the Years", "Sweet Mystery of Life" and "Wedding Prayer".

Duties of the best man were assumed by Ronald Richards. Ushering were Ronald Farish, Ronald Lane, Richard McMechan, Dorothy McDonald at the organ played the wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Esthel Howe who sang "For You My Love", "True Love" and "A Wedding Prayer".

Mrs. Frank Burton and Mrs. Ronald Farish—registered the guests who were entertained at a reception at the church. The newlyweds, both Narbonne High graduates, are spending a honeymoon at Yellowstone National Park.

Their new address will be 25921 Cypress St., Lomita.

MONEY TO BURN?

"Of course I can fiddle while Rome burns," Emperor Nero said. "I keep my money in Athens." The slightly scorched Senator brushed a spark from his toga before replying, "Not very convenient." Nero nodded sadly. "Commuting to Athens for cash has been rough on my Roman arches." "I keep my travel funds in Bank of America Travelers
